

INSPECTION COMPANY COMPARISON FORM

| Not all home inspectors are equal. The state of Michigan does not require licensing, certification or insurance to become a home inspector. Protect your investment , ask these questions during your phone interview | House to Home | Company A | Company B | Company C |
|---|---------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| Prompt & Knowledgeable  | YES           |           |           |           |
| Michigan Business Licensed  | YES           |           |           |           |
| NACHI Certified Inspectors  | YES           |           |           |           |
| Insured & Bonded  | YES           |           |           |           |
| 30+ Years Experience  | YES           |           |           |           |
| Written NAHCI Buy Back Guarantee  | YES           |           |           |           |
| Same Day Electronic Report  | YES           |           |           |           |
| Photographs of Defects With Recommendations   | YES           |           |           |           |
| Thermal Imaging Included  | YES           |           |           |           |
| Additional Lab Services Offered   | YES           |           |           |           |
| Well & Septic Inspections   | YES           |           |           |           |
| Your Attendance Encouraged/Requested  | YES           |           |           |           |
| Reviews & References Over 100+ 4.9 rating   | YES           |           |           |           |